

Biography of Daniel S. Katz

Daniel S. Katz is Assistant Director for Scientific Software and Applications at the National Center for Supercomputing Applications (NCSA), Research Associate Professor in Computer Science, Electrical and Computer Engineering, and the School of Information Sciences, and Guest Faculty at Argonne National Laboratory. He was recently a Program Director in the National Science Foundation's Division of Advanced Cyberinfrastructure. His other experience includes: Senior Fellow at the University of Chicago, Director for Cyberinfrastructure Development at LSU's Center for Computation & Technology; Principal Member of the Information Systems and Computer Science Staff, Group Supervisor, and Project Manager at the NASA Jet Propulsion Laboratory; and Computational Scientist at Cray Research, specializing in parallel implementation of computational electromagnetic algorithms.